John of Montecorvino arrived in China very soon after Polo left it. This Marco F. Sanson presented a letter from the Pope to the Mongol Khan, and was well rec'd.
Within 6 yrs he had built a church in Cambaluc and had baptised some 6,000 people. His success moved Pope Clement V to send out 7 Minors of episcopal rank, 3 of whom arrived in 1338 and associated Mongol architecture. For 60 yrs, the church Household kept after the dispersing the Mongols the progress of Christianity in China was not short, just to be known until the many dynasty was approaching its end.
